Second Sunday of Easter, Year A, April 23rd 2017. Bulletin No: 1160.
Divine Mercy Sunday

The Message of the Merciful Jesus

St Faustina wrote down day after day what Jesus said to her. This is a selection of just a few of those messages:

“My daughter urge souls to trust in my Mercy. This will be your mission on earth, and in Heaven.”

“Be merciful as I am merciful. Love your neighbours for love of me, even your most hated enemies, so that my mercy may be reflected in your heart. Give me souls. I am three times holy, and I detest the smallest sin, but when sinners repent, I pursue them with my mercy along their journey, and when they turn to me I forget the bitterness they have caused my heart and I rejoice at their return. Tell them that I am always waiting for them”.

“if they have great faith, there are no limits to my generosity. I rejoice when they seek a lot from me, because I have a lot to give, a great lot. I am sad on the other hand if they ask for little because then they only restrict their own hearts. Tell them my daughter that I am all love and mercy. Whosoever approaches me with trust, will receive such a superabundance of my graces that he will not be able to refrain from sharing them with others.”

The greatest joy that Jesus receives is from sinners who throw themselves with faith on His mercy. “those souls who invoke my mercy give me great delight: to them I grant graces far beyond their expectations.”

Jesus, the Divine Mercy, I consecrate my entire life,
from this day on, to You without reserve.

Into Your hands I abandon my past,
my present, and my future,
from this day forward, make me a true follower of your teaching.

Let Your Divine Mercy Image protect
my home and my family
from all the powers of evil in this world today.

May all who venerate it never perish,
May it be their joy in life, their hope in death,
And their glory in eternity. Amen.
