Twenty Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A, September 3rd 2017. Bulletin No: 1179.

‘Take up your Cross’

Jesus said to his disciples, ‘Unless you take up your cross and follow me you cannot be my disciple.’ The word ‘cross’ has been softened, so that the saying of Jesus has lost its force. The cross doesn’t mean your arthritis, your indigestion, that difficult relationship, at least not in the first place. These are things which come to us in spite of ourselves. The ‘cross’ in the New testament means that suffering which comes into our lives because of the choices we have made for the Kingdom. In that sense it is always something we choose.

In the Gospel Jesus asks for commitment from his followers. ‘If anyone wants to be a follower of mine, he must renounce himself and take up his cross and follow me... anyone who loses his life for my sake will find it.’ For the committed Christian, suffering is not a likelihood; it is a certainty. Being a disciple is a serious business. Yet this doesn’t mean that suffering is something Christians should seek. Jesus did not seek suffering; Gethsemane makes that clear. But suffering will inevitably be part of Christian life as it was part of Jesus’ life.

But our following of Christ can be in small steps. God is patient. His challenge is invitation. Following Christ means faithfulness to one’s way of life, concern for others in whatever manner, the caring gesture, the kind word - these add up. The Lord does not overlook the painful decision, the unspoken sorrow, the secret suffering. There can be much heroism in ordinary life. There are many more saints than those we honour as such.

Official Prayer for the World Meeting of Families 2018

God our Father

We are brothers and sisters in Jesus your Son
One family, in the Spirit of your love.

Bless us with the joy of love.

Make us patient and kind

Gentle and generous,

Welcoming to those in need.

Help us to live your forgiveness and peace.

Protect all families with your loving care,

Especially those for whom we now pray:

*(pause and remember family members and others
by name)*

Increase our faith, strengthen our hope,

Keep us safe in your love,

Make us always grateful for the gift of life that we share,

This we ask through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Falling Fruit Ireland - Food Sharing Project

Fallingfruit.ie is a project to harvest the seasonal glut of local fruit (apples, pears, plums, nuts, etc.) in Dublin and to direct it to charities that cater for those in need. Each year hundreds of fruit trees go unpicked. 'Falling Fruit' organises a team of volunteers to pick the fruit and distribute it to local charities or other good causes. In 2017, we also aim to collect surplus vegetables from the grower's fields – gleaning for charities! This initiative acts as a helpful service to households who have fruit going to waste in their gardens. It also serves the community by directing the surplus fruit to local charities, where possible.

Contact bernie@fallingfruit.ie or Tel. 086 2134897 if you wish to offer fruit or volunteer.
