At a time when humanity's relationship with the created world has never been more fractured, the soaring prayer of St Francis of Assisi, 'The Canticle of the Creatures', rings down seven centuries and calls us to ecological conversion. Mission Sunday

TOGETHER

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY
20TH OCTOBER 2019

Mission Sunday is a day for us to reflect on the contribution we, as Irish people, have made to this mission in the past and how we live it today.

Mission was understood as going abroad, to countries where the Church was not yet strong or to places where people suffered from poverty or conflict. This is indeed still necessary and valid today and we pray people will continue to give their lives to mission in this way.

Mission was also seen as the task primarily of priests and religious, with some few lay missionaries, and their work was very much supported by the generosity of the Irish people. Pope Francis today is encouraging all the baptised to more actively assume their responsibility as 'missionary disciples'. Many Catholics in Ireland, especially among our youth, see little relevance of the faith in their lives. Hence, a challenge for all of us as Catholics is to take the time to seriously reflect on our faith experience, seek to become more knowledgeable about the Scriptures and teachings of the Church, ask ourselves questions about it and seek to articulate it meaningfully to ourselves and others, and then base our action on our experience of faith. Mission is essentially faith in action, and to this we as baptised are all called to be committed.

There many ways in which people live mission today, in Ireland and overseas. These include being involved in action to prevent trafficking, various kinds of social and community work with the poor and marginalised, reaching out to refugees and migrants and action to care for the earth. Some people who are engaged in these activities may not profess a formal Christian faith, but it is evident that their activities are inspired by Gospel values and they are promoting the reign of God

Tuesday 22nd October: St John Paul II, pope.

October - the Month Of The Rosary

Last Sunday there was a great turnout to say the Rosary for life, thanks to everyone who turned out despite the inclement weather and to those who led the prayers. As the month of October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary there is no better way to celebrate but to pray the Rosary as Mary has asked.

Here is how to pray the Rosary...

The Rosary begins with the Apostles Creed, followed by one Our Father, three Hail Marys (traditionally offered for an increase in faith, hope, and charity for those praying the Rosary), a Glory Be, and, if desired, the Fatima Prayer. Next come the five decades, each consisting of one Our Father, ten Hail Marys, a Glory Be, and, if desired, the Fatima Prayers. Conclude the Rosary with the Hail Holy Queen.

The Joyful Mysteries

The Annunciation, The Visitation, The Nativity, The Presentation, The Finding in the Temple

The Luminous Mysteries

The Baptism in the Jordan, The Wedding at Cana, The Proclamation of the Kingdom, The Transfiguration, The Institution of the Eucharist.

The Sorrowful Mysteries

The Agony in the Garden, The Scourging at the Pillar, The Crowning with Thorns, The Carrying of the Cross, The Crucifixion.

The Glorious Mysteries

The Resurrection, The Ascension, The Descent of the Holy Spirit, The Assumption, The Coronation: Mary is crowned Queen of Heaven and Earth.

The mysteries are prayed as follows, on Mondays - Joyful; Tuesdays - Sorrowful; Wednesdays - Glorious; Thursdays - Luminous; Fridays - Sorrowful; Saturdays - Joyful and Sundays - Glorious.
