

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week

The Society of St John the Evangelist is a monastic community in the Anglican Episcopal Church, based in Cambridge, Mass. Rooted in the ancient traditions of prayer and community life, and critically engaged with contemporary culture, the Brothers seek to know and share an authentic experience of God's love and mercy. 'Silence' is one of many short and beautiful online talks available on their website. Access it and other rich spiritual online resources, at www.NewPilgrimPath.ie

IMPORTANT NOTICE

As of Saturday 7th December 2019 there will be no 6.30pm Mass in our Parish. There has been a decreasing attendance at this Mass over the years. The Diocese has advised to have less Masses during the weekend. For now it seems best to keep the Sunday mornings as they are.

Thirty Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C, 10th November, 2019. Bulletin No: 1293.

We believe...

Each Sunday we end the Creed with these words:

‘we look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.’

For God
so loved the world,
that He gave His only begotten Son,
that whoever believeth in Him should not perish,
but have everlasting life.
JOHN 3:16

Belief in an afterlife is one of the most important of our beliefs as Christians. Without it, our lives on earth are a journey to nowhere. With it, our lives on earth are a journey to the promised land of eternal life.

Hope is a vital part of life. What bread does for the body, hope does for the spirit. We spend a great deal of our lives waiting, hoping, and longing for one thing or another. But we know that this world can never fulfil our deepest hopes and longings. Only God can do that.

God has made us not for death but for eternal life. ‘God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life’ (Jn 3:14-15)

The splendid prospect of eternal life should enable us to live out joyfully the mystery of our fragile human condition which sees us suspended between earth and heaven, between time and eternity, between nothingness and infinity.
