

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week

According to the American mystic, Thomas Merton, the more we try to analyse life, the more we involve ourselves in sadness. "But it does not matter much because no despair of ours can alter the reality of things, or stain the joy of the cosmic dance which is always there. Indeed, we are in the midst of it, and it is in the midst of us, for it beats in our very blood, whether we want it to or not". James Finley spent six years at the monastery of Gethsemane, where Thomas Merton was director of novices. He has given a series of insightful online talks and retreats on Merton's spiritual writings. Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A, 12th July, 2020. Bulletin No: 1318.

The Word is like a Seed

God's Word comforts, guides, inspires and challenges us in turn. It is like precious seed.

The sower sowed the seed haphazardly: on the path, on the rocks, among the thorns and on good ground. You might say that he was wasteful and foolish. But there is another way of looking at this. He was extremely generous, even prodigal with the seed. He wanted to give every part of the field a chance to produce something.

THE PARABLE

OF THE SOWER

OR THE PARABLE OF THE FOUR TYPES OF SOIL

God keeps on sowing his Word in our hearts even though he knows that much of what he sows will be eaten by the birds, or fall on rocks or among thorns.

In nature the seed has only a short growing season in the early part of the year. Not so with that seed which is the Word of God. Growth can come at any stage in a person's life.

The seed of God's word, once dropped into the human heart, never dies. It's never too late to act on the Word of God.

A word is dead when it is said, some say.

I say it just begins to live that day. (Emily Dickinson)
