

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week

After the great feasts of Easter, Ascension, Pentecost and Corpus Christi, we are once again in 'Ordinary Time'. Ordinary Time is not called "ordinary" based on its level of importance. The origin of the name comes from the Latin word ordinalis, which means "numbered." It signifies a numbered (or ordered) list of Sundays that anchor our daily worship. The readings, liturgy and prayer can be a rich time to reflect upon our relationship with God, our relationships with each other and to grow in depth on many levels. Creighton University Online Ministries has a huge variety of helpful resources for prayer in Ordinary Time. Since Anglican and Catholic churches share many of the same liturgical readings, these are useful ecumenical resources. Access them at www.NewPilgrimPath.ie

Tickets for Sunday Mass

While indoor gatherings are restricted to 50 people we will continue to have tickets for Sunday Mass. Tickets can be obtained from the Parish office from Wednesday morning on a first come first served basis. The office is open from 9.30am to 1 pm. Thank you all for your co-operation and patience.

Summer Flowers

Anyone who would like to give some of their garden flowers or greenery for church decoration can leave them in the sacristy Thursdays. We would be most grateful. Thank you.

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A, 5th July, 2020. Bulletin No: 1317.

Lightening Burdens

During the years he spent in Nazareth. Jesus lived among the ordinary people. For many of those years he lived the life of a working man. He knew at first-hand the struggles, difficulties and frustrations ordinary people had to endure. He was aware of the heavy burdens life placed on their shoulders.

Consequently, he felt for the ordinary people and wanted to lighten their burdens. People came to him from all quarters with their burdens of sickness and misery. All of them had their burdens lightened as a result of meeting him. His mere presence could bring peace to an anguished soul.

Regarding his own burden he said, 'My yoke is easy and my burden is light'. However could he, who took on himself the burdens of so many, say that? Because he carried his burden with love. Only love can make a heavy burden seem light. A woman who is deprived of food can barely last out till the end of it. But a mother who gives up food for a day so that her children may have something to eat, hardly notices it.

Some of our burdens may be baggage which we could and should let go of. Religion should not make life more burdensome. If Jesus placed any burden on us at all, it was that of loving one another. But if we have love, that is no burden at all. He doesn't take our burdens from us, but gives us the strength to carry them. While faith makes all things possible, love makes all things easy.
