

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week

"Somewhere, out at the edges, the light is turning... and the freed air goes wild with light... May I live this day compassionate of heart, clear in word, gracious in awareness, courageous in thought, generous in love." These are the words of the late and great John O'Donohue in a truly uplifting memorial video. Watch it at www.newpilgrimpath.ie.

Aid to Africa

Many years ago Fr. Liam Talbot SDS was working in the Salvatorian Mission in Tanzania. The Mission had a cook from the local community. The son of the cook was Ernest. He was so influenced by the priests working on the mission that he decided to become a priest himself. Fr Ernest Chikawe is now 56 years old and is working in a parish called Lionja. The Parish has 8 outstations the distance from the Parish Church varying from 8kms to 38kms. Fr Ernest did rely upon his 1992 Landcruiser to get him around his rural parish but unfortunately is no longer working. He estimates that it will cost him €3000 to get it back on the road. Could we help him?

Could you Volunteer?

Every day the pews are washed down in an effort to ensure that the Corona virus does not spread within the Church. Would you volunteer? Contact the Parish Office if you can help.

An Open Invitation

Each of us, if we got down to it, could draw up quite a long list of things, which we know in our hearts, we should do, or should not do, but which we refuse to look at. And we have no shortage of excuses. They spring up to our defence like over-enthusiastic security guards.

The excuses that kept the invited guests from attending the wedding feast, weren't all bad, in most cases they were perfectly good ones. But this is precisely what makes them so dangerous. We don't see them as posing a threat.

The greatest danger facing us is not that we might abandon God and turn to evil, but rather that we might just ignore his invitation. To ignore God's invitation altogether is the worst form of refusal. It implies indifference. Indifferent people are the hardest to convert.

We are invited not merely as individuals but as a community. It is the banquet of the new People of God, namely, the Christian community.

We don't have to earn our place at the banquet. We are invited. It seems so simple to come to an unearned banquet.
