The Psalms – 150 Ways to Pray

For nearly three thousand years, men and women from diverse lands and cultures have been lifting their hearts to God by praying and singing the psalms. The Psalms: 150 Ways of Praying is an online course from the English Jesuits. It explores why these beautiful and timeless songs have such universal appeal and shows how the psalms can set us on a pathway to deeper prayer. www.newpilgrimpath.ie.

Remembering Jesus

Most of us don't have to remember to eat: our stomach has its own way of telling us when it's time. But we do have to remember to eat in the name of Jesus - which is why the Church asks us to gather in community each week to keep the memory of Jesus alive. Our Eucharist is a celebration of thanksgiving for what Jesus has done. Lest we forget what He has done, we assemble to hold that memory sacred. That is why after the consecration we pray in the Eucharist prayers:

Father, we celebrate the memory of Christ, your Son. (I)

In memory of his death and resurrection ... (II)

Father, calling to mind the death your Son endured... (III)

Father, we now celebrate this memorial... (IV)

Each of the Eucharistic prayers expresses the purpose of our gathering: the refusal to forget what Jesus has done in His body. We keep the memory fresh; we celebrate it anew; and in celebrating we receive new life for our own journey in faith. Whether we live in the midst of affliction or affluence, we come together as a community to profess that what Jesus did for us has a continuing importance. Today, our celebration of the Eucharist keeps us from being a thankless people.

In celebrating the Eucharist we celebrate a dangerous memory: the memory of suffering, passion and death. We recall Jesus' radical values that put Him in opposition to so many of His own people: His talk about God and the kingdom; His insistence on forgiveness; His opposition to religious sham; His commitment to peace; His willingness to die to overcome sin. In receiving the body and blood of Christ we become His body in our world.

St. Joseph - Terror of Demons

The power of St. Joseph is truly extraordinary. He alone bears the title "Terror of Demons". What makes this unique title so extraordinary is that Joseph is just a layman. Like most laymen he is a father and a husband. It is his loving fatherhood, in particular, that gives St. Joseph extraordinary intercessory power.

Have you heard of Blessed Bartolo Longo, who lived during the late 19th and early 20th century? He was born in Italy to a devout Catholic family. As a young man he was swept away by various political ideologies and became anti-Catholic. He became involved in spiritualism which led him to attend séances and become an ordained priest of Satan.

Bartolo's involvement with the occult and spiritualism left him empty and unhappy. He suffered from hallucinations, torturous nightmares, frazzled nerves, bodily ailments and severe depression. Seeking guidance, he turned to a friend and a Dominican priest, and began to experience a radical conversion. Fearing for his soul, he renounced spiritualism and its practices, and turned back to the Catholicism of his youth. In gratitude for having been delivered from the occult he became a Third Order Dominican and dedicated his life to the spread of the rosary. He was very devoted to St. Joseph and prayed to him everyday, and was particularly fond of his title "Terror of Demons". Bartolo had such a great love for St. Joseph that he wrote a lengthy book of meditations and prayers to St. Joseph. Bartolo Longo, the former Satanic priest, was beatified by St. John Paul II in 1980.

It is a great blessing for souls to be under the protection of the Saint whose name makes demons tremble and flee.

Blessed Bartolo Longo

Your name, Joseph, is the joy of heaven, the honour of earth, and the comfort of mortals. Your name invigorates the weak, comforts the afflicted, heals the sick, softens hardened hearts, helps us in temptation, frees us from the snares of the devil, obtains every gift and shares the power of the holy names of Jesus and Mary.

Blessed Bartolo Longo
