

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week

The great mystic, St Teresa of Avila, said that in the Old Testament Song of Songs (also called the Song of Solomon) the Lord is teaching the soul how to pray. "Along how many paths, in how many ways, by how many methods you show us love! ...in this Song of Songs, you teach the soul what to say to you... We can make the Bride's prayer our own."

If Teresa is right and the loving, desiring, passionate language of the Song is the language in which God longs to hear the soul speak, many of us may have to make a radical shift in our perception of what it is to love and be loved by God. Why, from the hundreds of Old Testament passages used in readings for Sundays and Holy Days in the Catholic Lectionary, not a single passage from the Song is included? And only two passages are used in the Revised Common Lectionary? Listen to – and pray with – this tremendous hymn of praise, stunningly read by David Suchet, at newpilgrimpath@gmail.com

Angels - Messengers from God

Angels - messengers from God - appear frequently in Scripture, but only three are named.

Michael appears in Daniel's vision as "the great prince" who defends Israel against its enemies. In the book of Revelation, Michael leads God's armies to final victory over the forces of evil. Devotion to Michael is the oldest angelic devotion.

Gabriel also makes an appearance in Daniel's visions, announcing Michael's role in God's plan. His best known appearance is when he appeared to Mary and she consented to be the mother of Jesus and then subsequently to Joseph urging him not to be afraid to take Mary as his wife.

Raphael's activity is confined to the Old Testament story of Tobit. There he guides Tobit's son, Tobiah, through a series of fantastic adventures that lead to a happy ending: Tobiah's marriage to Sarah, the healing of Tobit's blindness and the restoration of the family fortune.

Each of these archangels performs a different mission in Scripture. Michael protects; Gabriel announces and Raphael guides and heals.

And then we all have our own Guardian Angels, whose role is to represent us before God, to watch over us, to aid our prayer and to present our souls to God at death. Jesus said (Matt 18:10) "see that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that their angels in heaven always look upon the face of my heavenly Father".

*Angel of God, my guardian dear, to whom God's love commits thee here.
Ever this day be at my side to light, to guard, to rule, to guide, Amen*
