

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week

The Gospel reading for the 4th Sunday in Advent is the story of the Visitation. The superb Jesuit Advent online series, Arts & Faith, concludes on the 4th Sunday with a glorious meditation on the 1910 painting, The Visitation, by Edward Ossawa Tanner – the first African American to gain international artistic acclaim. Access it at: www.newpilgrimpath.ie.

Consecration to St Joseph

On the 8th of December 2020, Pope Francis declared a 'Year of St. Joseph'. He explained that the aim of the special year was to 'increase our love for this great saint describing St Joseph as a beloved father, a tender and loving father, an obedient father, an accepting father, a father who is creatively courageous, a working, father, a father in the shadows'. Here in our parish we concluded the special year with a service of music, reflection and prayer consecrating our parish to St. Joseph. If you missed it you can still watch the recording on our website.

The Parish Office will close from after work on the 23rd of December reopening again on January 4th.

Fourth Sunday of Advent, Year C, 19th December, 2021. Bulletin No: 1391.

For it is in giving, that we receive..

In the Gospel we see Mary visiting Elizabeth. She herself had just been visited by the angel Gabriel, who had brought her the good news that she was to become the mother of Jesus. However, instead of going off and concentrating on herself, she went with haste to visit Elizabeth, who was also expecting a child.

Elizabeth was her cousin. Our first and holiest duty is kindness towards our own kin. However, this doesn't mean it's easy. One's kin can be very demanding.

Mary's visit meant a great deal to Elizabeth. But Mary too benefited from it. Elizabeth spoke some lovely words of affirmation and confirmation to her: 'Blessed is she who believed that the promise made to her by the Lord would be fulfilled.' As the elder and more experienced of the two women, Elizabeth was able to help Mary. Essentially what we have here is two women in the same condition helping one another.

We can receive by giving.
