

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week

“For all that has been, THANKS! For all that is to be, YES!”

This marvellous prayer is very appropriate as we stand on the threshold of another year. It was written by Dag Hammarskjöld, a Swedish diplomat and the second Secretary General of the United Nations, who died at the age of 56 in an airplane crash as he travelled to a warring region of Africa. Brother Jonathan Maury of the Society of St John the Evangelist, an American monastic community in the Anglican Communion, has written an inspiring reflection on Hammarskjöld's words. You can read it at: www.newpilgrimpath.ie.

THANK YOU

Many thanks for your donations towards the flowers for the Christmas Altar.

The Presentation of the Lord (2nd February)

Among the many holy feasts in the Christian calendar, the Feast of the Presentation on Candlemas Day is one of the oldest, celebrated since the 4th century A.D. in Jerusalem. A woman of that time, Egeria, wrote a detailed account of an extended pilgrimage to the Holy Land, described the Candlemas celebrations there:

“...all things are done in order with great joy, just as at Easter. All the priests preach, and also the bishop, always treating of that passage of the Gospel where, on the fortieth day, Joseph and Mary brought the Lord into the Temple, and Simeon and Anna the prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, saw Him, and of the words which they said when they saw the Lord, and of the offerings which the parents presented.”

There are as many additional traditions and various guidelines for the observance of Candlemas. At the base of it, a person of faith can turn to the relevant Bible verse, Luke 2:22-24. That passage describes how Mary and Jesus follow the rule in Leviticus that says an infant boy should be circumcised on the eighth day after birth, and that, thirty-three days later, the mother is considered “clean” and should burn an offering at the boy’s presentation at the temple on that 40th day.

Today, you might think the word “Candlemas” sounds antiquated, a reference to something like a scene from “Oliver Twist” or an old black-and-white movie. But to faithful Christians even now, Candlemas is a solemn and worshipful time, a time to try to be “a light in the world”
