

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week

Poetry has been described as capable of making one into a tuning fork of the Divine. 'Journey with Jesus' is an online outreach of the global Presbyterian Church. Its poetry section offers over 300 inspirational poems by writers as diverse as Teresa of Avila, GK Chesterton, John Donne, Thomas Aquinas, Seamus Heaney, Gerard Manley Hopkins, WH Auden, TS Eliot, Mary Oliver, and many, many more. The site also provides poems specific to the Church seasons of Lent, Easter and Advent, and poems related to Celtic spirituality. Access it on www.newpilgrimpath.ie.

Do Not Judge

How easy it is to be destructively critical, to be over hasty in making judgements, to be intolerant of the faults of others. How terribly arbitrarily and superficially people criticise and judge. By our judgements we convict ourselves. Jesus says to us, 'Do not judge, and you will not be judged yourselves.'

Where others are concerned, we seldom see the wider picture, much less the full picture. Even so, it doesn't stop us from jumping to conclusions and rushing to judgement. Even when we do see the full picture, we still should refrain from hasty judgements. Even then we are still only on the surface. In every person there is a dimension which escapes the powers of judgement of any other human being. We can't see into the mind and heart of another. We may see the deed, but we cannot see the motives behind the deed.

All of us are sinners. Though we deserve God's judgement, which of us wants to receive that judgement? Do we not all long for mercy and forgiveness rather than judgement? As people who are conscious of our own need, not for judgement and condemnation, but for forgiveness and compassion, let us not rush to judgement. If possible, let us refrain from judging people altogether.
