

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week

The 'Christian Art' website is the brainchild of a former director of Sotheby's, London, now studying for the Catholic priesthood in the Diocese of Westminster. Patrick van der Vorst's offering is simple. We send you the Gospel reading of the day, alongside a work of art that we believe is reflective and appropriate to that reading." The often surprising art choices together with his imaginative commentary achieve at times the almost impossible - bringing the shock of newness to scripture passages long blunted by familiarity. visit: www.newpilgrimpath.ie.

Do you need help with your Smart Phone, Tablet or Laptop?

We have the answer! Transition Year pupils from Blackrock College are on hand Tuesday & Wednesday mornings from 10.30 in St Joseph's Parish Centre, Glathule to help you, it's a drop in support so no need to make an appointment and the service is free.

We especially thank all those who have sent offerings to the Parish towards our heating costs. It is very much appreciated at this time.

At your word, Lord.

Night-time was the time for fishing. If anyone else had said to Peter 'Launch out into the deep and let down the net for a catch,' he would have said, 'Are you mad? If we didn't catch anything during the night, what chance have we of catching anything in broad daylight?'

But when Jesus said those words to Peter, Peter's spontaneous response was, 'Lord, we fished all night long and caught nothing. But if you say so, I will let down the net.'

For Peter, the word of Jesus was different from the word of anyone else. It carried an authority which no other word carried. Hence, if Jesus called for it, then no matter how hopeless the situation might seem, or how tired he was, or how foolish he might appear, he would try again.

The Gospel story is not so much a story about fishing, but about trust. Jesus was saying to Peter: 'How far are you prepared to trust me?' It was a turning point in the life of Peter. What are the qualities in Peter that made Jesus call him to share in his work? He had the first and most essential one - faith in Jesus.

The Lord still calls people. By our baptism we too are called to follow Christ. But what does the following of Christ mean? It means to be Christian where you are and in your chosen profession. There are more ways than one of serving Christ and His Gospel. The call in the first instance is not to an apostolate but to discipleship.

FEASTDAYS this week

Tuesday 8th: St Josephine Bakhita (1868-1947), a native of Sudan, brought as a slave to Italy where she became a Christian and later entered the Institute of Canossian Daughters of Charity in Venice. Today is International Day of Prayer and Awareness against Human Trafficking. First observed in 2015 and on the memorial of St Josephine Bakhita. Each year around

2.5 million people are victims of trafficking and slavery. For those engaged in trafficking it has become one of the most lucrative illegal activities in the world. Through the Day of Prayer we reflect on the experience of those who have suffered but also we are called to reach out to victims and survivors.

Thursday 10th: St Scholastica

Friday 11th: Our Lady of Lourdes - World Day of the Sick.

You can join celebrations for the 30th World Day of the Sick with the Redemptoristine Sisters, Drumcondra (rednuns.com webcam) online at 8.00 p.m. on Friday 11th February.

The Office of Vocations for Priesthood

You are invited to pray for Deacon Joe Keegan who will be ordained to the priesthood by Archbishop Dermot Farrell on Sunday, 20th February at 3pm in the Church of the Most Precious Blood, Cabra West, Dublin 7. This is blessing for the whole diocese. Please include a prayer for vocations in your daily prayer.

Calling on all men of the Parish

For spiritual exercise based three pillars: prayer, asceticism, and fraternity. Could you....? would you... ?
Please phone Fr. Padraig 0863549538 for more info.
