

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week

At its core, Lent is about preparing ourselves for a deeper and fuller reception of Christ into our hearts. "What will help me open my heart to the mystery of Holy Week and help me receive Christ more fully into my heart? You may be surprised by the answer. You may need more mercy, compassion, and validation to be able to have the courage to go deeper into your heart and let Christ meet you there." SYNOD MEETING

Thank you for your responses to the Synod questionnaire. The collated results will be available at the back of the Church later in the week. If you feel that you have anything further to include or contribute to these questions we invite you to an open meeting in the Church on Wednesday 13th April 8pm-9.30pm.

We are most grateful to you for donations towards the provision of flowers for our Easter Altar. Thank you.

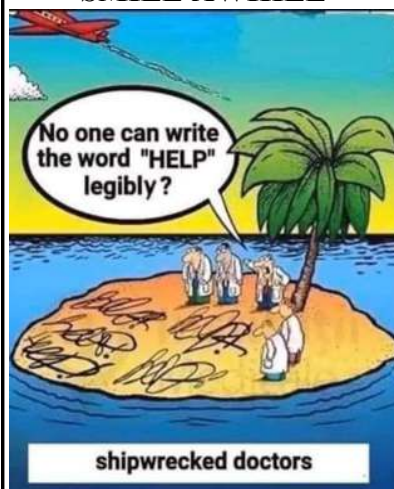

AIFREANN GAEILGE

Mass in Irish is celebrated on the 2nd Saturday of the Month. The next Irish Mass is April 9th at 6.15pm.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The planned resurfacing of the Church car park did not begin as promised last Monday due to logistical difficulties with the contractor. We hope it will begin next week and that the weather is on our side! The work will take approximately one week to complete. Please bear with us there will be some disruption to the parking facility in the church grounds.

Fifth Sunday in Lent, Year C, 3rd April, 2022. Bulletin No: 1406.

Everybody needs friends - even Jesus. In the village of Bethany Jesus had three very special friends - the sisters, Martha and Mary, and their brother Lazarus.

When Lazarus got sick, it was only natural that the first person the two sisters should turn to for help was Jesus. We don't know why but Jesus delayed in going to them. Lazarus died and the Gospel shows the desolation his death caused to Martha and Mary. When Jesus finally came to them, they suggested that he could have prevented this death 'Lord, if you have been here, our brother would not have died.'

The desolation experienced by Martha and Mary is one many of us have experienced. So what can we do? We must try to imitate Martha. The story presents her as a model of faith. In her hour of grief, she ran to the Lord and poured out her sorrow to him. And when he challenged her to believe, she made a wonderful profession of faith: 'I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who was to come into the world'. When we suffer it seems as though God is absent. But when we pray we come to realise that God is not absent, but is present in our suffering. God is with us as our hope in adversity, and our strength in weakness.
