

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week

In the early 20th century, P  re Pierre Teilhard de Chardin linked his deep spirituality as a Jesuit to his scientific work and reflection. The idea that the universe and everything in it is constantly moving towards a point of perfection defined by unity and love, a point which he called ‘the Omega point’. The mission of the Omega Centre is to deepen awareness of Teilhard de Chardin’s integration of science and spirituality by providing insights and practices to enkindle awareness of love at the heart of reality. Go to www.newpilgrimpath.ie. Also, as we enter May, New Pilgrim Path brings a different Ave Maria for each day of the month!

Each month Mary’s unique place in our faith life is celebrated but May is a special month devoted entirely to her. During this month of May let’s make a special effort to pray the Rosary each day in her honour. Perhaps you could make a Sacred Space in your home for Mary this month.

Please remember in your prayer this week the young people making their Confirmation in our Parish on Thurs the 11th. We welcome the Episcopal Vicar Rev Donal Roche who will preside over their Confirmation.

Faith in Jesus

John B Keane, the playwright, who lived in Listowel, Co. Kerry was a man of deep faith. Towards the end of his life he contracted cancer, which proved to be terminal. Around that time he was asked on a TV show if he believed in a life after death. By way of an answer he told the following story.

He had a friend, Jack, who lived in Co Donegal. Trouble was they hadn’t seen each other for years. One day John B phoned him. They arranged to meet in Galway at noon on a particular day, Galway being about halfway between Kerry and Donegal.

As John B was about to leave home, his wife said to him, ‘But you haven’t seen him in years. How can you be sure that he’ll show up?’

To which John B responded, ‘Jack is a reliable man. If he says he’ll be there, he’ll be there.’

Then, turning to the interviewer, he said, ‘As for your question. I firmly believe that Jesus is a reliable person. He has told us that he has gone to prepare a place for us. He will be there. And so will our loved ones.’
