New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week

“When you lose someone you love,/ Your life becomes strange,/The ground beneath you gets fragile”. November, with its shortening days, is a month when we often remember our dead. A short, guided reflection on “Grief” is presented by the superb Pray-As-You-Go team, drawing on John O’Donohue’s haunting poem, “For Grief”. www.newpilgrimpath.ie.

How to increase the value of your Sunday Mass donations...

Please include your name and address (or eircode) on the front of the envelopes. We can then include these donations when it comes to tax reclaim time. Any tax reclaimed in the scheme will remain in the parish and can be used towards the upkeep/heating of the Church. Please take some envelopes home with you today and have them prepared in advance of Sunday. The tax return on a €5 per week donation would be approx €80 to the parish.

November lists can be returned to the parish office, sacristy or placed in the donation box at the back of the church.

Fr Michael Simpson

It is with regret that we announce that Fr. Michael will be leaving the Parish of Our Lady of Victories for pastures new on the North Side in the near future. We take this opportunity to thank Fr Michael for his service to the Parish over the years and wish him all the very best in his new home.

LOOKING INTO THE MIRROR

Christ’s harshest words were directed, not at sinners, but at religious people such as the scribes and Pharisees. Right from the beginning of his ministry they had dogged him. He had been very patient with them. He had reasoned with them, but to no avail. The scribes and Pharisees were not unique. For the most part they were good and sincere people. They could be any group of religious people anytime and anywhere. The picture Christ painted of them was not a flattering one. But it is a mirror into which we too are invited to look. If we do look into this mirror we will see our own face there for we have some if not all of their faults.

Which of us can truthfully say that our deeds don’t match our words?

Do we not sometimes consider ourselves better than others? Do we not lay down the law for others which excusing ourselves? Do we not demand sacrifices of others that we don’t demand of ourselves? Do we not like to be notices, and to take the best seat - if we can get it? Are we too not lacking in charity, compassion, and a spirit of service?

The real tragedy of the scribes and Pharisees wasn’t the fact that they had faults, but that they were blind to those faults. Yet many of them were sincere and pious people. But what good is piety if it doesn’t make us more humble, more loving and more compassionate? Piety is not substitute for goodness.
