New Pilgrim Path

The world has probably never been in greater need of protection than it is now. Climate change, war, famine, and fear rage across our planet.

St Patrick, whose feast day occurs this 17th March, speaks to us down 16 centuries in what may be the most powerful prayer for protection ever composed. Pray 'St Patrick's Breastplate' (also known as 'St Patrick's Lorica' or 'The Deer's Cry') and learn about the tradition behind the prayer at: www.newpilgrimpath.ie.

Fifth Sunday of Lent, Year B, 17th March, 2024. Bulletin No: 1507.

St Patrick, Bishop, Principal Patron of Ireland.

Legends about Patrick abound, but truth is best served by our seeing two solid qualities in him: He was humble and he was courageous. The determination to accept suffering and success with equal indifference guided the life of God's instrument for winning most of Ireland for Christ.

Details of his life are uncertain. He may have been born in Scotland, England or Wales and he called himself both Roman and a Briton. At just 16 he and a large number of his father's slaves, were captured by Irish raiders and sold as slaves in Ireland. Forced to work as a shepherd, he suffered greatly from hunger and cold. After six years, Patrick escaped, probably to France, and later returned to Britain at the age of twenty-two. His captivity had meant spiritual conversion and he spent years at Auxerre, France, where he was consecrated bishop at the age of forty-three. His great desire was to proclaim the Good News to the Irish.

Patrick was a man of action. He had a rocklike belief in his vocation, in the cause he had espoused. Although he suffered much opposition from pagan druids, and was criticised in both England and Ireland for the way he conducted his mission, in a relatively short time, the island had experienced deeply the Christian spirit and was prepared to send out missionaries whose efforts were greatly responsible for Christianizing Europe.

One of his few certainly authentic writings is his Confessio, above all an act of homage to God for having called Patrick, an unworthy sinner.

Copies of the Confessio are available for you to take from the back of the Church
