New Pilgrim Path

The 500-year old Ignatian Examen is a daily prayer of review, used across many Christian denominations. The purpose is to discern the ways in which God has been present to you, the times when the Holy Spirit was drawing you towards life. A special 'Ecological Examen' has been developed as a tool for reflection and action to help deepen our call to care for creation and the most vulnerable. ### The Way of Jesus

Jesus compares himself to the little child, the one who cannot resort to power tactics when threatened or maltreated. Jesus' protection is his Father; his trust is placed in the God who will ensure his protection. When suffering comes, Jesus refuses to abandon trust in the Father. That trust makes him vulnerable, like a little child, but unless the disciples can come to welcome that vulnerability they will never understand the way of Jesus.

Jesus offers a permanent challenge to his followers to welcome the powerless, to take to heart the weakest members of the community. He places himself in their company. Special hospitality should be offered to those from whom we can benefit the least. Their vulnerability is something that Jesus not only shares but values.

As he takes the road to Jerusalem, his own vulnerability will expose him to those who lie in wait. There will be people keen to explore his gentleness and put his endurance to the test. In drawing his own followers away from looking to power and prestige for models of discipleship, Jesus invites them to a new openness to the Father. No earthly power will save Jesus from death in Jerusalem; only his Father can save him from being left for dead. That is what the Father does. That is how the Father welcomes the trust of the little one.

We the parish community on the Ballymun Road are privileged and honoured to be hosting St. Bernadette's Relics. Many of us has a special place in our hearts for St. Bernadette and indeed some of us have had the privilege of travelling to Lourdes. Now a little bit of Lourdes comes to us and we look forward to welcoming you to our parish as we gather together on this very special occasion. Please note you do not have to book, the church will be open as above and please feel free to call anytime. There is ample parking in and around our church. There is also a very good bus service. The number 4, 9, 13 & 155 all stop outside our church. As you are heading from town it is stop no. 91. Heading into town it is stop no. 115. The number 11 and N4 also serves our parish but does not stop outside the church.
