

What better way to prepare for the month of November, when we contemplate the loss of those we have loved, and our own mortality, than by cultivating the practice of contemplation -being fully present — in heart, mind, and body—to what is in a way that deepens awareness, encourages oneness, and strengthens compassion. Center for Action and Contemplation (CAC) website offers a range of contemplative wisdom and practices that are easy to understand and apply to everyday life. Access this at: www.newpilgrimpath.ie.

He Will Wipe Away Every Tear: Hope for All Souls

Today, the Church pauses in solemn remembrance of all who have gone before us - our loved ones, friends, and all souls who rest in God's mercy. All Souls' Day is not only a time of mourning but also a celebration of hope, founded on the promise that God "will destroy death forever and wipe away the tears from all faces" (Isaiah 25:8)

The psalmist proclaims, "I shall see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living." This faith allows us to look beyond grief, trusting that the same Lord who gave us life will welcome us into eternal communion with Him. St. Paul reminds us that "while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." God's love does not abandon us in death - it redeems, restores, and leads us to everlasting peace.

In Luke's Gospel, Jesus' compassion for the widow of Nain shows us the heart of God - a love that meets sorrow with mercy and transforms loss into life.

As we pray for all souls, we do so in hope. Our prayers become acts of love that bridge heaven and earth, trusting that through Christ's victory, every soul may rest in the radiant joy of God's eternal embrace.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May they rest in peace. Amen.

November is traditionally the month in which the Church remembers Her dead, and in a special way we are invited to remember family and friends who have died, especially those who have passed in the previous year.
