Throughout Advent, New Pilgrim Path will focus on identifying opportunities for encounter through a range of online resources, retreats, music, prayer, poetry, reflections, images and more. At the end of Advent, we hope we will hear – spoken to us - the words of Moses to the Israelites as they emerged from the wilderness after 30 years: “The eternal God is your refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms.” Visit: www.newpilgrimpah.ie

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION SURVEY – HAVE YOUR SAY

The current Department of Education survey on the future of patronage in the primary sector is important in that it will shape the discussion on primary school divesting for the years to come throughout the Republic of Ireland. The survey is school specific and needs to be responded to by all parents and prospective parents locally. It is important that those who wish for a change in patronage would have their voice heard. It is equally important that those who wish for a Catholic education for their children, and the support for sacramental preparation available in Catholic schools, would have their voice heard also. For those reasons and to ensure that an accurate picture emerges, please participate in this survey if you are a parent or a prospective parent of a Primary school student. The survey closes on Tuesday, December 16th and can be accessed at www.gov.ie/primaryschoolsurvey/

Dublin Celebrates its 'New' Cathedral

On 14 November 2025, the Feast of St Laurence O'Toole, St Mary's Pro-Cathedral in Dublin was formally elevated to full cathedral status by Pope Leo XIV. This momentous decision coincided with the church's bicentenary - it was originally dedicated on 14 November 1825, on the very same feast day.

The “Pro-” in its name, short for pro tempore (“for the time being”), reflected its provisional status for two centuries. By granting it the permanent title of St Mary's Cathedral, the papal decree ends this long-standing provisional status.

The Feast of St Laurence O'Toole is always a day of celebration in the Diocese. Priests from the four corners of the Diocese gather to celebrate Mass in honour of our Diocese' Patron Saint.

Singing at the Mass this year were a choir comprised the Palestrina choir and a schools choir of children from the schools under the patronage of St Laurence O'Toole. Of special note was a young parishioner of ours, Cillian de Fréin, who sang the psalm at the Mass. Well done Cillian, we are all very proud of you!
