

Remember to keep an eye on the notice board in the porch. Sometimes there are just too many items to publicise in the bulletin. Thank you.

The November List is available from the Church for you to complete and return. They can be returned via the basket collection on Sundays, to the parish office or via the offerings box in the back of the church.

November is traditionally the month in which the Church remembers Her dead, and in a special way we are invited to remember family and friends who have died, especially those who have passed in the previous year. All those on the November list of the dead will be prayed for at every Mass during the month of November.

Thirty Second Week in Ordinary Time. Year C, 9th November, 2025. Bulletin No: 1592.

St Laurence O'Toole Patron of Dublin 14th November

St. Laurence O'Toole, patron saint of Dublin, stands as a shining example of holiness rooted in compassion, courage, and peace. Born into a time of political instability and personal hardship, he grew to become a man of deep prayer and tireless service. As Archbishop of Dublin in the twelfth century, Laurence guided his people with wisdom and gentleness, always seeking reconciliation where there was division and hope where there was despair.

He was known for his life of simplicity and prayer, often retreating to Glendalough to seek strength from God. Yet his spirituality was never withdrawn from the world—it overflowed into action. He cared for the poor, fed the hungry, and worked to bring peace between warring factions, even risking his life as a peacemaker. His leadership was marked by humility and a profound sense of God's presence in all things.

In our own time, St. Laurence reminds us that holiness is not distant or unattainable. It is found in daily faithfulness, in choosing peace over pride, and in serving others with a generous heart. As patron of Dublin, he continues to inspire the city to be a place of welcome, compassion, and unity. His life calls each of us to build peace and to let God's love guide every action we take.
