Exhibition Sunday 18th October in Church

The group of knitters who meet on Mondays from 2 to 4 pm, in the parish meeting room, will be displaying their completed baby clothes and blankets. All the hand knits will be donated to the charity 'Community Connect' to be included in care packs given to mothers and families who find themselves in need. Most of the hand knits to date have been produced using donated wool and needles. New members to the group are always welcomed.

The Diocese are sharing some very encouraging news from the Vocations Team: there are now six people studying for the Archdiocese of Dublin in 2026 — four in Maynooth, studying Philosophy and Theology, and two beginning their Propaedeutic Year in Valladolid, Spain.
All parishes and communities are asked to continue to pray for vocations to the priesthood and religious life, and if you know someone who may be considering a vocation, please encourage them to get in touch with the Vocations Team. Fr Seamus McEntee or Fr Bill O'Shaughnessy at vocations@dublindiocese.ie or bill.oshaughnessy@dublindiocese.ie.

Twenty Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A, 18th October 2026. Bulletin No: 1641.

One in Christ, United in Mission

"Give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar – and to God what belongs to God." These words of Jesus invite us to reflect on what truly belongs to God. The coin bears Caesar's image, but every human person is created in the image and likeness of God. Our lives, gifts and talents are blessings entrusted to us, to be used in the service of others.

This Sunday, the Church celebrates World Mission Sunday, a special opportunity to remember missionaries throughout the world who share the Gospel and bring hope to communities facing poverty, hardship and uncertainty. Their dedication reminds us that mission is not simply the work of those who travel to distant lands. Every Christian is called to share the love of Christ wherever they live and work.

Mission begins in ordinary ways: welcoming someone who feels alone, supporting a neighbour in difficulty, forgiving those who have hurt us, and offering kindness to those who are struggling. Through these simple actions, the message of Jesus becomes visible in our world.
As we pray for missionaries and support their work, we are also challenged to recognise our own responsibility. Faith is not something to keep to ourselves; it is a gift to be shared.

May this World Mission Sunday renew our commitment to Christ and inspire us to become witnesses of his love, bringing hope, compassion and peace to all we meet.

ONE IN CHRIST UNITED IN Mission
100 YEARS OF WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Sisters of Marie Auxiliatrice

Tuesday October 20th is an important date for the Sisters of Marie Auxiliatrice. On this date 80 years ago, the foundress of the Congregation, Marie Therese de Soubiran, was beatified by Pope Pius XII in Rome.
Please pray with us for the Sisters of the Congregation worldwide who continue to live her vision, centred on the Eucharist, sharing in the mission of Christ for a better world.
"Those who put their trust in God are strong with God's own strength, which becomes theirs."
(Blessed Marie Therese)

The November List is available from the Church for you to complete and return. They can be returned via The basket collection on Sundays, to the parish office or via the offerings box in the back of the church.

November is traditionally the month in which the Church remembers Her dead, and in a special way we are invited to remember family and friends who have died, especially those who have passed in the previous year. All those on the November list of the dead will be prayed for at every Mass during the month of November.

CATHOLIC PAPERS

Please use the donations box at the back of the church to pay for your Catholic papers. Irish Catholic €3.80,
Bible Alive: €3.75
Catholic Voice €3.00
Messenger €2.50.
