“Every moment is a gift. ... Whatever life gives to you, you can respond with joy. Joy is the happiness that does not depend on what happens. It is the grateful response to the opportunity that life offers you at this moment.” Brother David Steindl-Rast's 15-minute TED Talk, “Want to be happy? Be grateful!” has been viewed in the region of 9.64 million times to date on the TED website. Watch it at: www.newpilgrimpath.ie.

Registration for the Sacraments

Parents wishing for their children to receive First Confession, First Holy Communion and Confirmation in Sallynoggin 2027 must register their intent on the parish website.

Exhibition Sunday 18th October in Church

The group of knitters who meet on Mondays from 2 to 4 pm, in the parish meeting room, will be displaying their completed baby clothes and blankets. All the hand knits will be donated to the charity ‘Community Connect’ to be included in care packs given to mothers and families who find themselves in need. Most of the hand knits to date have been produced using donated wool and needles. New members to the group are always welcomed.

Requests for Help

It has come to our attention that from time to time people at the Church are being asked for financial assistance. This behaviour is not condoned.

If you receive requests for help it is preferable that individuals are guided to the St. Vincent de Paul.

Come to the Feast

There are invitations that are easy to accept: an invitation to celebrate, to share a meal, or to spend time with friends. Yet sometimes life becomes so busy that even good invitations can be ignored. The Gospel presents God's invitation to a great feast as a reminder that his love is offered freely, but it still asks for a response.

God's invitation is not simply about attending a particular event. It is an invitation to live differently – to recognise that life is a gift and that there is always room for gratitude, kindness and generosity. The feast represents the joy of being welcomed into God's presence, where no one is forgotten or excluded.

It can be tempting to make excuses or to become so absorbed in everyday concerns that faith is pushed to the margins. Yet God continues to invite, patiently and generously. The invitation reaches every person, regardless of background or past mistakes.

Accepting God's invitation means more than words. It means allowing faith to shape the way life is lived: showing compassion to those who struggle, forgiving those who have hurt us, and making time for God and for others.

The invitation is there. The question is whether it will be accepted.
